

BUILDING A CULTURE OF GENEROSITY

We hope to never live through another pandemic. It seems though, in the hardship, we often see what God is up to. Here are just a few of the ways in which you have shared with us how you have seen God at work through this time:

- Being a member of Zion has been a very positive thing for me. I was looking for a place to belong and Zion and its members was the place for me. I felt welcomed and accepted by everyone. Belonging here has saved me spiritually and emotionally. I am so grateful for my church family. Bless all of you.

- Having served on the Diaper Depot committee along with the other people has made me feel good as we are helping the little girls and boys in our town. Also meeting people I didn't know before made me feel good.

- I have been blessed to be given an opportunity to serve the Culinary Ministry here at Zion. This opportunity has given me a chance to use my skills and passion for food preparation. The ministry has also given put me in a position of responsibility and provided me an opportunity to meet people and make new friends while serving our Lord, Jesus Christ

SEEK IN PRAYER GOD’S WILL FOR YOUR GIVING

What do we tend to do when the church asks for our support?

The common tendency is to consult our spouse, our budget, our bills, our income, our tax situation, our investments, our accountant, etc., and then determine what we can afford or spare.

Instead we should as Christians seek to discover what God’s will is for us in our giving. A Christian pledge can really only be made on our knees, seeking God’s will in fervent prayer.

Prayer is an integral part of the Christian life. The decision on how much to give should not be made without seeking first in prayer what God would have us do and listening for the voice of God in the prayer conversation.

Giving to the church is not a financial transaction. Instead, giving to the church is a spiritual exercise undertaken only after conversation with God.
